Good morning, and welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad you are here. Today, we hear Jesus call us to deny ourselves, take up the cross, and follow—a summons that can feel almost overwhelming. But alongside those demanding words, Paul offers a vision of a community marked by genuine love, generosity, patience, hospitality, and peace. This is how we learn to follow Jesus faithfully: not halfway, and never alone. These truths are at the heart of our ALL IN Challenge, which invites every person to join a small group where we can grow in grace and become more like Christ together. This morning, we will place our completed commitment cards on the altar as a sign of our desire to be ALL IN. If you still need a card, you can find one in the narthex. We hope you will join us this fall as, together, we become more like Jesus for Belmont and beyond.

Come to the Table

CCLI Song # 7036352

We all start on the outside, the outside looking in
This is where grace begins
We were hungry, we were thirsty
With nothing left to give
Oh the shape that we were in
Just when all hope seemed lost
Love opened the door for us
(He said) come to the table
Come join the sinners who have been redeemed
Take your place beside the Savior
Sit down and be set free – come to the table
Come meet this motley crew of misfits
These liars and these thieves
There's no one unwelcome here
So that sin and shame that you've brought with you
You can leave it at the door
And let mercy draw you near

To the thief and to the doubter
To the hero and the coward
To the pris'ner and the soldier
To the young and to the older
All who hunger all who thirst
All the last and all the first
All the paupers and the princes
All who've failed you've been forgiven
All who dream and all who suffer
All who've loved and lost another
All the chained and all the free
All who follow all who lead
Anyone who's been let down
All the lost you have been found
All who've been labeled right or wrong
To ev'ryone who hears this song

Weekly Devotional Guides offer daily Scripture readings, reflections, and questions for contemplation and discussion. Each guide follows the theme and content of Sunday's sermon and includes a prayer for the week. Copies of the guides, along with transcripts of today's sermon, are available at the Information Center. You may also sign up to receive the guides by email, along with other church updates, at www.fumcbelmont.org/emails.

Today's Bulletin Cover features Winslow Homer's Sunday Morning in Virginia, painted in 1877. Homer first encountered Virginia as an illustrator during the Civil War and returned in the 1870s to portray the uncertain realities of African American life during Reconstruction. Set in a former slave cabin, the painting shows a young teacher helping three impoverished children read the Bible, while an elderly woman looks on. The older boy's intense concentration reflects the thirst for learning among formerly enslaved people, even as the older woman bears the sorrow of a lifetime shaped by slavery. In their gathering, faith, learning, suffering, and the uncertain promise of freedom are held together.
