Good morning and welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! This morning, the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we conclude our series exploring the Angels of Christmas by turning to the angel who appears to the shepherds outside Bethlehem, announcing the birth of the Messiah. Their message is a message for all people, a song of peace and joy born out of an awareness of God's presence with us in Jesus. How can we proclaim the good news—the joy—of God's presence this Christmas season?

"Face of God"

CCLI Song # 7121311

Underneath the starry sky
A mother holds a child tonight
All is calm and all is bright
She sings to Him a lullaby
Gloria I hear the angels singing
Gloria All of the heavens ringing
The Savior of the world is in her arms
She's staring at the face of God
She looks upon the great I Am
The gift of Heaven in her hands
Born to save the sons of earth
He was born to give them second birth

Those who are able please stand*

Welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad that you've chosen to worship with us this morning. We invite you to explore all the opportunities we have for children, youth and adults of all ages and stages of life. We seek to be a community of faith that welcomes all as we grow to be more like Jesus Christ for our community, loving and serving God and one another in all that we do.

If you are a guest, we are honored to have you with us. Please stop by the information center as you leave this morning to receive a small gift and more information about our church. We look forward to getting to know you in the days to come! Welcome!

Today's Bulletin Cover features Thomas Cole's The Angel Appearing to the Shepherds. A founder of the Hudson River School, influenced by Romanticism and the natural beauty of the United States, Cole painted it in 1834 to gain attention and earn additional commissions. Bursting through the clouds, an angel announces the birth of Jesus to awe-struck shepherds. The light surrounding the angel serves as a symbol of spiritual awakening. The shepherds, for example, represent three successively higher states of spiritual response to the angel's message, beginning with the stunned fear of the praying youth and culminating in the quiet understanding of the standing elder. Some scholars have noted that the middle shepherd bears a resemblance to Cole and may be an idealized self-portrait. His presentation of the Mediterranean terrain draws on his travels in Italy, allowing us a vivid journey through this vast space before reaching the glowing cave where the Holy Family awaits.

WELCOME, NEW MEMBERS This morning we are blessed to welcome new members into our church family. Joining today at our 8:30 service by Profession of Faith is Cindy Tilley. Her husband Kent is an Ordained Elder in our Western North Carolina Annual Conference who is also affiliating with our congregation. If you would like more information about joining our church family, please call or email Pastor George (704-249-0645 or george@fumcbelmont.org) or speak with him after the service today.

Prayer after each worship service is available in the prayer room off of the Narthex. Our Congregational Care Ministers and retired clergy are available to pray with you.

CHURCH GATHERINGS

Youth Hike at Rocky Branch Trail

Connect begins again on January 12 from 5:30 to 7:30 in Carpenter Hall. Join us for a few rounds of Grog and other fun games!

Youth are invited on January 19 for a day of service where we will help our fellow church member with her yardwork. We will meet from 2 to 4 pm for a time of service and fellowship. All hands are needed. Contact Quanna today to sign up and for the address.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GIVE AND SERVE

Today is your last day to purchase Gifts that Matter for Christmas. You can support our Children and families of our ZOE Empowerment community in Rwanda for as little as $10. Visit the ZOE table in the narthex after worship to help transform the life of a child and honor a loved one at the same time.

The offering collected on Christmas Eve will go to relieve suffering in the Alan Campos neighborhood mobile home park in Swannanoa, NC, a community that was decimated by Hurricane Helene. Skyland UMC has been doing all they can for this community where many children live. The funds we raise will be used to cover the plumbing and HVAC needs of approximately 20 mobile homes whose owners' personal insurance policies and government FEMA assistance have fallen short. Thank you for your generosity.

The Dahlia Grove Community Cafe' will be closed for Christmas this week and next. They will reopen January 9th.

Feeding the Children ministry is actively serving over 250 children in our community. Sign up to serve December 26th, 30th or January 2nd. Visit fumcbelmont.org/feedthechildren to sign up.

Our next Room in the Inn night is December 28th as we partner with Christ UMC in Charlotte. Learn more and sign up to help at fumcbelmont.org/roomintheinn.

Thanks to those who have faithfully provided a dinner for our families at Catherine's House throughout the year. Our December and January schedule is full but we need meals starting in February. To read more about this feeding opportunity or to sign up go to fumcbelmont.org/catherineshouse

Thank you for our record donation to the BCO this month. We were able to provide the BCO with over 400 pounds of non-perishable foods this December. Our next Stock the BCO Sunday is January 5th.
