A Light to the Nations

Experiencing and Sharing the Light of Christ

Welcome to worship at First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad you are here! This morning, we continue our series exploring and celebrating Christ, the Light of the World, for all people. In today's Gospel, Jesus comes to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. John is reluctant, believing it is Jesus who should baptize him, but Jesus insists. As he enters the water, a voice from heaven announces him to be God's beloved son. John offered baptism as a sign of repentance, but for Jesus it was a commissioning, the voice from above calling and claiming his life for God's mission and purpose. The same is true for us. Just as baptism initiated the mission of Jesus Christ, so baptism is the initiation of our participation in God's mission as servants and disciples of Christ.

Those who are able please stand*

Welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad that you've chosen to worship with us this morning. We invite you to explore all the opportunities we have for children, youth and adults of all ages and stages of life. We seek to be a community of faith that welcomes all as we grow to be more like Jesus Christ for our community, loving and serving God and one another in all that we do.

If you are a guest, we are honored to have you with us. Please stop by the information center as you leave this morning to receive a small gift and more information about our church. We look forward to getting to know you in the days to come! Welcome!

Today's Bulletin Cover features Georgia artist Lorenzo Scott. Scott creates paintings based on old master canvases he has studied in reproduction and in museums, often with a religious theme. This piece illustrates today's Gospel Lesson. The beam of light symbolizes the Holy Spirit, which descended "like a dove" upon Christ. Scott painted Saint John and one of the angels as African Americans to specifically link the faith of his community to John's mission to "prepare the way for the Lord."

Prayer after each worship service is available in the prayer room off of the Narthex. Our Congregational Care Ministers and retired clergy are available to pray with you.

2025 SCRIPTURE FOCUS

But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

FIRST AND SECOND PETER

Thank You

To over 100 volunteers who filled 175 volunteer slots to pack, cook and deliver 4560 meals to 244 children in our community. Nine hundred and ninety of those meals were prepared hot from our kitchen. All other meals were non-perishable foods delivered to the home for the child to eat later.

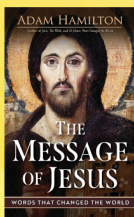

FUMCB lived into our mission to be more like Jesus Christ to our community by feeding children during the Christmas break.

Adult Sunday School Classes

Disciple

Everyone who is aiming to learn more about our faith is welcome in this class. We start with the children's Bible intentionally - to ensure everyone starts with a basic understanding of the scripture.

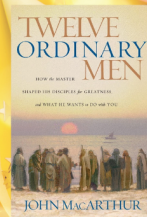

Route 66

New Class! Salt & Light Fellowship

Meeting in the Narthex Meeting room. A place to have real conversations and build relationships. They will begin with a Scripture devotional and then talk about how God is moving in their lives that week.
