Good morning and welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! Today we continue our summer journey through the Psalms—biblical prayers and songs that give voice to the full range of human experience. From joy to sorrow, from trust to fear, the Psalms remind us that every part of life matters to God and belongs in God's presence. This morning, we turn to Psalm 13, which begins with a raw and honest cry: "How long, O Lord?" It is a prayer of lament, naming pain and pleading for light. Yet even in the depths, the psalmist chooses trust. As we worship, we bring our whole selves before God, knowing we are held by grace and surrounded by love.

"I Will Wait for You"

CCLI Song # 7118914

Out of the depths I cry to You
In darkest places I will call
Incline Your ear to me anew
And hear my cry for mercy Lord
Were You to count my sinful ways
How could I come before Your throne
Yet full forgiveness meets my gaze
I stand redeemed by grace alone
I will wait for You I will wait for You
On Your word I will rely
Till my soul is satisfied
So put Your hope in God alone

Take courage in His power to save
Completely and forever won
By Christ emerging from the grave
His steadfast love has made a way
And God Himself has paid the price
That all who trust in Him today
Find healing in His sacrifice
I will wait for You I will wait for You
Through the storm and through the night
I will wait for You surely wait for You
For Your love is my delight

Those who are able please stand*

Welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad that you've chosen to worship with us this morning. We invite you to explore all the opportunities we have for children, youth and adults of all ages and stages of life. We seek to be a community of faith that welcomes all as we grow to be more like Jesus Christ for our community, loving and serving God and one another in all that we do.

If you are a guest, we are honored to have you with us. Please stop by the information center as you leave this morning to receive a small gift and more information about our church. We look forward to getting to know you in the days to come! Welcome!

Today's Bulletin Cover features Jeremiah Lamenting the Destruction of Jerusalem by Rembrandt van Rijn (1630), an early oil painting by the Dutch master that portrays the prophet seated in grief amid the ruins of a fallen city. Painted when Rembrandt was just 24 years old, the work captures the raw emotional weight of lament through Jeremiah's hunched posture, hand to brow, and the glint of temple vessels cast aside—symbols of desecrated worship and national collapse. Behind him, Jerusalem burns, a visual echo of divine judgment, while a scroll—likely representing the book of Lamentations—rests close at hand. As a prophet who wept over the people's refusal to turn back to God, Jeremiah embodies the sorrow and spiritual resilience also voiced in Psalm 13, where the psalmist pleads, "How long, O Lord?" This pairing invites reflection on lament not as a lack of faith, but as its most courageous and honest expression amid divine silence and collective suffering.

Prayer after each worship service is available in the prayer room off of the Narthex. Our Congregational Care Ministers and retired clergy are available to pray with you.
