Good morning, and welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! Today is the First Sunday of Advent. Advent is the four-week season when Christians prepare for the coming of Christ—his coming at Christmas and his promised return to rule and reign over all things. Advent is a season of promise, when we look toward the future God has pledged and prepare our hearts to receive it. This morning's scriptures remind us that Christ's reign will bring the peace we long for in our lives and in our world. This peace is not something we manufacture, but something God is bringing. Advent invites us to live from that future—to wake up, to walk in the light, and to trust the One who holds history. If God's peace is already on its way, how might we begin to live as people who expect it?

"Light of the World"

CCLI Song # 7163734

Light of the World Treasure of Heaven

Brilliant like the stars in the wintery sky

Joy of the Father reach through the darkness

Shine across the earth send the shadows to flight

Light of the World from the beginning

The tragedies of time were no match for Your love

From great heights of glory You saw my story

God You entered in and became one of us

Sing hallelujah

Sing hallelujah

Sing hallelujah for the things He has done

Come and adore Him

Bow down before Him

Sing hallelujah to the Light of the World

Light of the world crown in a manger

Born for the cross to suffer to save

High King of Heaven death is the poorer

We are the richer by the price that He paid

Sing hallelujah for the things He has done

Sing hallelujah to the Light of the World

Light of the World soon will be coming

With fire in His eyes He will ransom His own

Through clouds He will lead us straight into glory

And there He shall reign forevermore forevermore

Sing hallelujah for the things He has done

Sing hallelujah to the Light of the World

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

GOING FORTH AS WITNESSES TO THE WORLD

Those who are able please stand*

Welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad that you've chosen to worship with us this morning. We invite you to explore all the opportunities we have for children, youth and adults of all ages and stages of life. We seek to be a community of faith that welcomes all as we grow to be more like Jesus Christ for our community, loving and serving God and one another in all that we do.

If you are a guest, we are honored to have you with us. Please stop by the information center as you leave this morning to receive a small gift and more information about our church. We look forward to getting to know you in the days to come! Welcome!

Today's Bulletin Cover features The Peaceable Kingdom by Edward Hicks, a 19th-century American Quaker painter. In it, Hicks imagines Isaiah's vision of God's promised future: predators and prey resting together, a child at the center, and creation at peace. The scene is not a naïve dream, but a picture of the world as God intends it to be—a kingdom of deep reconciliation and trust. As we begin Advent, this image invites us to long for, and lean toward, God's peaceable kingdom.

Prayer after each worship service is available in the prayer room off of the Narthex. Our Congregational Care Ministers and retired clergy are available to pray with you.

GATHERINGS FOR ADULTS

Sunday School

Disciple: Beginning today we will study Advent, the nativity story through the four Gospels, and will finish each week playing Christmas Candy Land.

Route 66: Will study how the Nicene Creed can deepen your spiritual journey and strengthen your understanding of Christian beliefs.

Salt & Light Fellowship: A place to have real conversations and build relationships.

Wanderers: Learn about the miracle of Christ's birth from those who first told the story.

GATHERINGS FOR CHILDREN

Crossroads Christmas Party TODAY from 5:30-7:30. All 4th-5th graders are invited!

GATHERINGS FOR YOUTH

Our annual youth Christmas party is today! We will go out to lunch at Culver's and then ice skate at the Whitewater Center.

December 7 is Missions Night for our youth. We will assemble 200 sandwiches for 100 lunches for Roof Above in Charlotte. Let's help our unhoused neighbors in need.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GIVE AND SERVE

Are you available to help those in our community who may need a ride to a doctor's appointment or pick up groceries? There are those who cannot drive any more or after treatment at the doctor's office. If this is a ministry you are interested in, please contact Doreen Collins for more information: doreen@fumcbelmont.org

In response to the greater need for food support in our community, we have turned our Little Free Library facing South Point Road into a free food pantry. For now, we will share both books and nonperishable food goods in our library. We are asking the congregation to help us keep this library stocked with food and help spread the word to the community. Donations can be placed directly into the library whenever you are at church.

Feeding the Children

Help feed hungry children during the school winter break, beginning December 22.

Sign up at www.fumcbelmont.org/signup

Share the Warmth

Beginning TODAY, decorate our Missions Tree in the narthex with mittens, hats and socks. All items will be donated to S.O.C.K.S Crisis Ministry in the Springwood community
