Welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We are glad you are here! Today we conclude our OUTGROW series, exploring the habits and attitudes in our prayer life and relationship with God that we must release in order to grow in faith. Our scripture, Luke 18:1–8, reminds us that we are called to pray without giving up. The prayer we outgrow is the prayer that loses heart. Today is also Commitment Sunday, as we present our 2026 commitments to FUMC as an act of worship. Our commitments are a sign of our resolve and desire to remain faithful in the year ahead, "growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

CCLI Song # 7105732

You came to the world You created
Trading Your crown for a cross
You willingly died
Your innocent life paid the cost
Counting Your status as nothing
The King of all kings came to serve
Washing my feet
Covering me with Your love
If more of You means less of me
Take ev'rything
Yes all of You is all I need
Take ev'rything

You are my life and my treasure
The One that I can't live without
Here at Your feet
My desires and dreams I lay down
Here at Your feet
Oh Lord change me like only You can
Here with my heart in Your hands
Father I pray make me more like Jesus
This world is dying to know who You are
You've shown us the way to Your heart
So Father I pray make me more like Jesus

Those who are able please stand*

Welcome to First United Methodist Church of Belmont! We're glad that you've chosen to worship with us this morning. We invite you to explore all the opportunities we have for children, youth and adults of all ages and stages of life. We seek to be a community of faith that welcomes all as we grow to be more like Jesus Christ for our community, loving and serving God and one another in all that we do.

If you are a guest, we are honored to have you with us. Please stop by the information center as you leave this morning to receive a small gift and more information about our church. We look forward to getting to know you in the days to come! Welcome!

Today's Bulletin Cover features The Light of the World, an allegorical painting by English artist William Holman Hunt, completed between 1851 and 1853. It depicts Jesus preparing to knock on an overgrown door, inspired by Revelation 3:20: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock." Hunt wrote of the work, "I painted the picture with what I thought, unworthy though I was, to be divine command, and not simply a good subject." The door in the painting has no handle and thus can only be opened from the inside, symbolizing the invitation to respond to Christ's persistent call. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells of a widow who refuses to give up seeking justice. In her persistence we glimpse the character of God—knocking, seeking, pressing toward us in love until we are changed. Hunt's painting, long considered one of the most significant renderings of Christ, now hangs in the chapel of Keble College, Oxford.

Volunteers Needed!
Join Us for a Lunch + Learn
Dear Friends,

Dahlia Grove is in critical need of volunteers, and we'd love for you to consider how you might be part of this life-changing work. Volunteering with us doesn't have to be a big time commitment—even being on a "back-up list" for driving women to and from appointments makes a huge difference.

We're also in the process of revamping our volunteer program and rebuilding our database, so now is the perfect time to let us know where you'd love to plug in.

Right now, we especially need support in these areas:

Transportation: Be on-call or scheduled to drive women to and from important appointments.

Café Support: Help at our weekly cafés—assist with set up, hostessing, and hospitality!

Classroom Proctors: Serve as learning aides, helping women stay on track during workforce development courses.

Class Facilitator: Teach a skill, lead a workshop, or share your professional expertise—life skills, wellness, financial literacy, and more.

Even a small amount of time can make a big impact.

If you're interested in learning more we invite you to attend our next Volunteer Lunch & Learn on:

Saturday, October 25

10:00 AM-12:00 PM

St. Stephen United Methodist Church, 6800 Sardis Road, Charlotte

Come enjoy lunch, hear more about our mission, and see how you can play a role in empowering women survivors right here in Charlotte.

Together, we can build a stronger Dahlia Grove community.
